~~Background Information.~~

ACTNOW Inc. is a non-profit organization that builds confidence in young girls through improvised movie making. We have created over 20 successful movies through a special process of scenario writing, improvisation, and editing in-camera. Several of these movies have been screened at the Amherst Cinema in the annual ShineFest.

Mission Statement:

The mission of ACTNOW! Inc. is to help people, particularly young girls, change their experiences of themselves so that they feel connected to their authentic power to create, to see options, to make healthy choices, and to star in their own lives.

When these Playshops take place:
